MARCUS,

One of the Houſe-Servants at Mount Vernon,

ABSCONDED on the ſecond inſtant, and ſince has not been heard of. He is a young lad, about 18 years of age, a bright Mulatto, dark blue eyes, long black hair, about 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, and of a ſlender make. He had on when he left this place a coat and jacket of dark mixture, black and white, and black breeches—but having various ſuits, one of black, and another of very light drab, it is uncertain which of theſe he now wears. Originally his name was Billy, and poſſibly he may reſume the ſame. It is very probable he may attempt to paſs for one of thoſe Negroes that did belong to the late General Waſhington, and whom Mrs. Waſhington intends in the Fall of this year to liberate—the public are therefore warned againſt any ſuch impoſition, as he is one of thoſe Negroes which belong to the eſtate of Waſhington P. Cuſtis, Eſq. and held by right of dower by Mrs. Waſhington during her life.

I will give Ten Dollars Reward to any perſon who ſhall apprehend the ſaid Negro and lodge him in ſome ſafe gaol, upon producing me a certificate to that effect; and will alſo pay all reaſonable charges over and above this Reward, for the delivery of him to me at this place.

Ship Maſters are hereby forewarned not to take on board Marcus; and thoſe who are found to ſecrete or harbour him, will be puniſhed as the law directs.

AND ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE.

LONDON, FEBRUARY 6.

Yesterday Government received dispatches from Sir James Saumarez, at Jersey, which in some degree confirm the last accounts from La Vendee. They state that a neutral vessel, from L'Orient, had brought intelligence that there had been two engagements between the Chouans and Republicans, in both of which the former had prevailed; but that 30 battalions of regular infantry, and 3 regiments of horse, having arrived in the Insurgent Provinces, there was reason to apprehend that the Royalists would be unable to keep the field. Circuitous reports of this kind are, however, but little to be depended upon.

Letters from Bereuth state, that after the arrival of a courier from St. Petersburgh, the Russian army had been reviewed; and that, after receiving the necessary articles for their equipment they marched in columns consisting of between 3 and 4000 men each, towards Franconia, by way of the Palatinate and Barenth in in order to re assemble in the districts of Wurtzberg and Aschaffenburg, and from thence to march to the Rhine. The same letters add, that the new Russian army expected in Bohemia, would pursue the same direction, and the campaign would soon be opened again by the siege of Mentze. The statement, however, is not official.

The report of Cardinal Bellisoni's having been elected Pope, is not yet confirmed.

Letters from Petersburgh and Cracow state, that 60,000 Russians are now on their march to reinforce the army of Prince Suwarrow.

Lord Minto, the English Minister at Vienna, has been at Prague, to treat with Prince Suwarrow, respecting the subsidies for the Russian army, which are said to have been agreed upon for 100,000 men. Their march to the Rhine will, it is said, begin in the middle of February, at farthest.

From the Hague we learn, that a Secretary of Legation, belonging to the Dutch Embassy at Paris, had gone thither in sixty hours, to confer in secret with some of the members of the present Government, after which he again returned to Paris.

Private letters from Italy have been received at Vienna, stating that General Count Klenau had not been able to maintain himself in the advantages lately gained by him, but that he was obliged to give way to superior numbers, the reinforcements intended for him not being able to join him on account of the badness of the roads.

The owners of privateers in France have presented a remonstrance against the decree of the late Directory, placing them under certain restrictions, "on account of the number of seamen with which they had filled the prisons of England." They admit, that, at one time, there were 30,000 prisoners in England; and that 450 of their privateers were taken by the English. But, taking the crews at an average of 30 men each, this, they observe would give a total only at 13,500. The great number of prisoners, they contend, therefore, should rather be attributed to the memorable defeat of their fleet, in Prairial, June, 1794; to those off the coast of Ireland and elsewhere; to the great number of the frigates captured; to the surrender of the troops in Ireland; the fishermen who have been seized, &c. and not exclusively to the losses of men suffered from the equipment of privateers.

COUP d'OEIL POLITIQE sur le CONTINENT.

Such is the title of a work recently published. It is from the pen of M. Saladin, by birth a Genevese, and is written with a considerable degree of talent. Its object is to vindicate the new Constitution of France, as capable of the customary relations of peace and amity. The work contains the following remarks on the emigrants:

"The French royalists in foreign countries may be divided into three classes.

"1. The indifferent, who, preserving their original principles, will not change sides, but will not at the same time adopt either hostile or conciliatory measures with respect to the Republicans. This class of emigrants have found by their industry and activity, sufficient resources to live elsewhere; they have renounced France, and familiarized themselves with their new situation; do not think of quitting them, and leave both war and politics to their own course.

"2. The reasonable, who do not give up the right of reasoning on present events, and do not relinquish the hope of seeing the period of their calamities and their exile; but instructed by experience, they have cast off their customary intriguing, and no longer expect any advantage from the war, but depend for material benefits on the interior. They are disposed generously to forget and forgive, and are ready to subscribe to every modification which may be judged necessary, whether with respect to the political system or property, the greater part of which they know cannot be recovered by the ancient proprietors. Faithful to their king, while like him they wander through the world, they will on no account refuse to follow him, if he is acknowledged king of France by the sovereign powers; if he is maintained abroad by formidable forces, and invited to return home by the general opinion; but they think they would degrade themselves by accepting commissions, which would place them at the head of troops, whose only object is devastation, by which they would be made the instruments of civil war in the heart of their country, against which they are unwilling to fight but as Frenchmen truly noble, in the presence and under the orders of a Prince, worthy of being ranked among these Royalists.

3. The incorrigibles are those, who since the origin of the states general, or that of the national assembly, have always beheld things in one point of view; who believed that all the honest men had emigrated; who are of opinion that the leaders and members of every party which has succeeded each other since the period of pure royalism, are either fools or villains; who think that because monarchy lasted during fourteen hundred years, France cannot exist without nobility, clergy, and parliaments, constituted on the ancient footing; who are persuaded, that without their interference nothing can be restored to order, and prepare themselves at the least glimpse of hope to mount their horses, and ride off to chastise the 'Carmagnols.'—These are the men who reject every insinuation respecting the necessity of concessions from the king, and who propose to give up no conditions to the patriots, but the permission of living, with the exception of their leaders, to whom the royal pardon is not to be extended.

They describe France on every possible occasion as it panting after royalty, while the contrary is ascertained to be the fact by those who have carefully attended to the fluctuation of parties in that country; or who have an opportunity of witnessing in person the inclinations of the inhabitants. The latter must know, that with the exception of a few furious royalists, no person would wish to return to the ancient system, and that all the successive parties in France, monarchy men, constitutionalists, girondists, federalists, thermidorians, anti-fructidorians, &c. would prefer joining the ranks of the republicans to those of the royalists, who have uniformly persisted in rejecting an union with every one that is not attached in the most unqualified manner to their cause.

BOSTON, APRIL 11.

ARCHITECTURE.

Mr. SAMUEL HILL, Engraver of this town, has with much labor and expence, just published a portable pocket volume of Langley's celebrated Architecture, in which are given in upwards of 200 Examples, engraved on 100 plates, with short and easy rules which are made familiar to the meanest capasity. The plates are executed in a style, not inferior at least, either in beauty or correctness, to the best London edition. This little volume is the cheapest and most useful book, on Architecture, that can be placed in the hands of young Builders. It may be carried in the pocket, and resorted to with convenience on all occasions. To those apprentices who may be so unfortunate as to be bound to ignorant & unskilful masters it is an invaluable instructor, for by an application to its rules, at their leisure hours, in evenings, when the business of the day is over, they may make themselves masters of all the various and magnificent orders of this noble art.

NEW-YORK, APRIL 15.

IF TRUE—IMPORTANT.

A gentleman in Cadiz, writes to his correspondent in this city, thus:

"Cadiz, 5th February, 1800.

"A great alteration has taken place in the French cruising system—nothing less than clearing inimical property under neutral colors. Since the last change, all their consuls in these parts have been recalled, and others named in their places. Many condemnations have been reversed—Lately an American ship, having been carried into Malaga by a French privateer was released by the consul without looking into the papers;—or, listening to the captors."

[The above we know was written at Cadiz, and received here by a respectable mercantile concern.]

SIR,

Having witnessed the ample protection, on which you have extended to the American commerce to this island, it would be doing injustice to our feelings were we to suppress our acknowledgments of that vigilance, perseverance, and urbanity, which have marked your conduct, during your arduous command on this station.

It must afford peculiar pleasure to the citizens of the United States, to know, that a trade, which was so recently exposed to frequent depradations, now passes in almost entire security; and we doubt not, that they with us, will do you the justice, of acknowledging the essential services which you have thus rendered to your country.

Whilst we regret your approaching absence, we felicitate you, sir, on the prospect of your speedy return to your family and friends.

With sentiments of the greatest respect and esteem,
we remain, sir,

On board the United States sloop of war Norfolk, Havanna, 24 April, 1800.

GENTLEMEN,

Accept my warmest thanks for the polite address you have been pleased to honor me with. In doing my duty if I have been so fortunate as to save any part of the American commerce, from depredations, it is grateful to my feelings.

Being on the point of returning to the country where attachments call me, it is more easy to conceive than express, the pleasure I must feel, in being enabled to carry along with me, the approbation of my conduct on this station, by so many respectable gentlemen, whose interest has been attached to that commerce I have endeavored to protect, and which nothing short of the most imperious necessity compels me to quit.

I have the honor to be,
Gentlemen, with great respect,
Your obedient servant,
WM. BAINBRIDGE.

Extract of a letter from an American gentleman at the court of Madrid to another in Cadiz, dated February, 1800, handed to us by a gentleman who came passenger in the brig Success, arrived here yesterday from Cadiz.

"Two Couriers have arrived here from Paris within three days. Buonaparte having failed in his attempts to negociate with the Chouans, has issued a proclamation to his soldiers, ordering them to put to death every person found in arms against the French republic in La Vendee, and also to burn and totally destroy every town or village that has taken part with the Chouans. This begins a war of extermination. It is not known how many men Buonaparte will be able to send against La Vendee. It is thought it will not exceed forty thousand men. General Brune is appointed to command this expedition. On the success of the war in La Vendee will depend the fate of France. It will either place Louis on the throne, or establish Buonaparte strongly in his present power. The extreme poverty of the treasury of France, and the few resources they have, make it difficult for Buonaparte to carry his plans into execution. He was lately obliged to suspend all kinds of payments from the treasury for 15 days, that a small sum might be sent from it for the present relief of the armies. It is certain that a triple-alliance has lately taken place between the two emperors and England. They each engage to support and carry on the war till Louis shall be placed on the throne of France. A fresh body of Russians are now on their march to join the imperial armies."

MUTINY IN THE CONGRESS.

On the fourth instant, a most serious and alarming mutiny broke out on board the Congress frigate of 36 guns, lying at Craney Island, four miles below the town of Norfolk. About two hundred of the seamen of the spar deck, paraded on the forecastle, and gave three cheers as a signal for mutiny. Only three commissioned officers were on board the ship at the time—these were the captain, first lieutenant, and lieut. Llewellyn. Seven of the ring-leaders were secured by their exertions, and deposited in Norfolk jail. The mutiny took place at night; it was however, standing quelled without bloodshed.

A letter from an officer on board, states that the marines were paraded with uncommon alacrity, and stationed in the best possible positions. Captain Sever complements them in the highest terms.

On Saturday evening between 10 and 11 o'clock, a severe storm of rain was experienced in this city, accompanied with very vivid flashes of lightning and some thunder. The wind was southerly; and the atmosphere was remarked to be very thick and sultry, yielding a sulphurous smell. Yesterday morning, after the storm had abated, an impalpable powder was perceived in the streets, especially in those parts where the water had subsided, and in the rain water casks, resembling brimstone. Several ingenious gentlemen have made a collection of this substance, for the purpose of experiment. By one of these gentlemen we are assured, that he melted a small quantity of it, and found it answer the purposes of common brimstone in making matches.—The circumstances is perhaps unprecedented; and we mention it with a hope that wherever it may have occurred, it will attract the notice of philosophy, as a subject in every respect deserving the most minute investigation.

PHILADELPHIA, APRIL 16.

CIRCUIT COURT OF THE UNITED STATES.

This morning, the cause United States v. Thomas Cooper, was called up for trial: The defendant applied to the court to summons the President of the United States as an evidence! This request the court rejected.

After the Jury had been drawn, Cooper addressed the Court, and stated, that he had applied to the attorney general to know if extracts from public newspapers would be admitted to be read as evidence in his behalf; that the attorney general was of opinion it could not—if the court rejected this kind of evidence, he should be obliged to solicit time to provide authentic and official copies of these documents; which were certain addresses to, and answers from the President of the United States. The Court, without giving an opinion on the admissibility or inadmissibility of the evidence contemplated, granted him time until Saturday next.

The Court then proceeded to arraign John Fries and others, charged with high Treason.

Extract of a letter from captain Tryn, of the ship Connecticut, to the secretary of the navy, dated February 9, 1800.

On the 14th ult. I fell in with a French privateer schooner of 14 guns which I chased the north side of Demarara, within gun-shot of the shore, until she got under cover of the fort. She sailed remarkable fast, or I should have taken her; I fired upward of 80 shot at her.

On the same day, I chased on shore on Defeada, a fine ship direct from France, mounting 22 guns, which bilged and sunk immediately after she struck."

…yeſterday at an early …

…hour, yet furniſhed us with nothing worthy notice, excepting the affair of the Portſmouth ſloop of war, which as it is the firſt inſtance of the kind ſhould attract particular attention.

What object these men could have in view, we cannot divine. It is, however, a thing ſo daring and atrocious that the inſtigators ought to be puniſhed with the utmoſt ſeverity; ſo as to give an example to our ſeamen, that the laws of the land can as well puniſh the criminal, as they can accord honors to the deſerving and meritorious.

NEW YORK, APRIL 17.

Captain Wilſon, who arrived here yeſterday from Cape Francois, informs, that, about the 12th March, a few days before his departure, news was brought in there that the United States frigate Boſton had engaged 10 of Rigaud's barges in the Bite of Leogane, which were completely armed, and ſaid to contain 500 men. Whilſt the Boſton lay becalmed, they attempted to board her on her bows; but the frigate getting her bow guns to bear, played ſuch a well directed fire, that the boats were almoſt inſtantly ſunk, and it was ſaid every man on board had periſhed.

Captain Bunce, of the armed ſchooner Folly, informs, that during the greater part of his ſtay at Jamaica the iſland was nearly in a ſtate of blockade by French and Spaniſh privateers. It was relieved a few days previous to his ſailing by the arrival there of the Bonetta and Moſquito ſloops of war, who clared the coaſts, and recaptured many of the prizes which had been taken by the enemy.

A gentleman who arrived here this morning in the brig Polly, in 16 days from Jamaica, informs, that the merchants are much incenſed againſt the conduct of Admiral Sir Hyde Parker, for the total neglect with reſpect to protection of the Iſland. That veſſels could not go from one port to another without being taken. That a committee of the moſt reſpectable merchants of Kingſton had been appointed to ſtate the ſituation of their affairs to the Lords of the Admiralty, and to the Underwriters at Lloyd's. That a few days previous to the ſailing of the Polly, the coaſt had been in ſome degree cleared by the Britiſh cruiſers. That the Admiral's conduct had given ſuch general diſſatisfaction, that he could not appear in public without being inſulted, and the magiſtrates of Kingſton, to prevent diſagreeable conſequences, had ſhut up public places of amuſement. Lord H. Seymour was anxiouſly expected to take command of the Jamaica ſtation. American property of all kinds brought high prices.

The ſhip Sally, of Philadelphia, ſailed in company with the Polly. April 7, Havanna bearing S W diſt. 10 leagues, ſpoke the ſchooner Succeſs, Dodd, 15 days from Philadelphia to Havanna.

Alſo arrived this morning, ſhip Eagle, 109 days from Liverpool, and the ſloop Hiram, 21 days from Cape Francois.

AMERICAN MANUFACTURES.

We know of no manufacture in this or any other country, equal to the manufacture of bricks; ſuch is the demand for this uſeful article, that common hard brick now ſell in this city at Eight Dollars per thouſand, with a proſpect of their being higher.

The Preſident of the United States has been pleaſed to appoint Charles Willing Bird, Eſq. Secretary of the territory of the United States, north weſt of the river Ohio.

BEAUTIES OF THOMPSON.

It is ſaid of him by lord Littleton, that his works contained "no line, that dying he could wiſh to blot." We ſeldom read an author with whom we are pleaſed, without being deſirous to know his character. And though we imagine that we ſee it delineated in his works, yet we are frequently deceived. A lady once remarked to Savage, who was much conſtant with Thompſon, that by his productions, ſhe knew three parts of his character:" A great lover, a great ſwimmer, and rigoroufly abſtinate." But, ſaid Savage, he knows no love but that of the ſex; he was never in cold water in his life; and he indulges himſelf in all the luxury that comes within his reach.—Thompſon is luxurient—but what ſtrikes us moſt forcibly, is his originality. He copies nature, and not Poets. He that hath ſeen the movements of the ſcattered race, at winter's approach, cannot but feel himſelf in the ſame ſituation, at reading the following lines:

"The wanderers of heaven
Each to his home retire; ſave thoſe that love
To take their paſtime in the troubled air—
Or ſkimming flutter round the dimply pool."

And in the following elegant lines we immediately behold the buſtle, amuſements, and all the movements of a crowded city, delineated entire in a ſingle ſcene.

"The city ſwarms intenſe. The public haunt,
Full of each theme and warm with mix'd diſcourſe,
Hums indiſtinct. The ſons of riot flow
Down the looſe ſtream of falſe enchanted joy
To ſwift deſtruction. On the rankled ſoul
The gaining fury falls, and in one gulph
Of total ruin, honor, virtue, peace,
Friends, families and fortune, headlong ſink.
Up ſprings the dance, along the lighted dome,
Mix'd and evolv'd in thouſand ſprightly ways,
The glitering court effuſes every pomp;
The circle deepens—beam'd from gaudy robes,
Tapers, and ſparkling gems, and radiant eyes,
A ſoft effulgence o'er the palace waves:
While a gay inſect in his ſummer ſhine,
The fop, light fluttering, ſpreads his mealy wings."

The two laſt lines, which cloſe the ſcene, are drawn to admiration. At laſt comes the FOP, a GAY INSECT, in his SUMMER SHINE, ſpreading his MEALY WINGS. It is enough.

MASSACHUSETTS ELECTION, FOR GOVERNOR.

Hon. Caleb Strong 10,163 votes.
Elbridge Gerry 9,518

Majority for C. Strong 1345

A letter from a gentleman in Northampton county to a Boſton Editor, ſtates that in 37 towns in that county, from which no returns are yet received, he can fately ſay, that Mr. Gerry will not have 100 votes.

Ten 18 pounders, 1600 round, and 600 double headed ſhot arrived at New-York, April 16, in the ſloop Proſperity, from Philadelphia, for the United States veſſels fitting in that harbor.

On Wedneſday morning, at 6 o'clock, ſailed from New York, the United States ſloop of war Portſmouth, captain M'Neal, for the French Republic, with diſpatches from government to our commiſſioners at Paris.

By a gentleman who came in the ſloop Hiram, arrived this morning from Cape Francois, we are informed that five days previous to their ſailing, information was received at the Cape, that the ſloop of war Connecticut, commanded by captain Tryon, was attacked in the bite of Leogane by a fet of piratical depredators, to the number of 15, having 500 men on board. Capt. Tryon underſtanding their uſual mode of approach, concealed his guns, and ſuffered them to come within muſket ſhot, then opened his battery upon them, and deſtroyed the whole groupe except two.

(N. Y. Com. Adv.)

It is ſaid, the February mail, arrived at Martinique, brings news of the arrival of the American envoys at Paris, and of their being well received..

A letter from Cadiz, by the ſhip Reſerve, mentions that 50 Britiſh tranſports had landed 9,000 Ruſſians and French emigrants at Bretagne.

A Jamaica paper of the 26th ult. ſays, We underſtand Touſſaint on the 12th inſt. took Jacquemel by aſſault, and put every perſon of color in it to death.

[N. Y. paper.]

Doctor Coke, the ſucceſſor of the late Rev. John Weſley (well known on this continent, and in every part of the civilized world, as the founder of the Methodiſts) has arrived at New-York in the Britiſh Packet Earl Gower, on a viſit to the different Societies of that perſuaſion in America. It is ſaid his habits of life are ſimilar to thoſe of his predeceſſor; that he generally preaches four or five times a day to immenſe numbers who croud to hear him from motives of curioſity as well as piety; and that, though not more than 50 years of age, it is computed he has delivered more ſermons during his miniſtry, than the whole Bench of Engliſh Biſhops. FOR THE COLUMBIAN MIRROR.

MR. PRICE,

While we reflect upon the motive which gave origin to the feeble and impotent attempt which was made in the Times of Wedneſday laſt, to torture an expreſſion contained in a letter from Mr. E. Brooke to his Friend in this Town, into a meaning foreign to his intention, the emotions which are neceſſarily excited in the breaſt of every real friend to his country and government, muſt be mingled deteſtation and contempt; deteſtation for the infamous and diſorganizing author, and contempt for the inſignificant effuſions of his weak invention. The meaning, which every mind not devoid of conception is conſtrained to give the extract referred to is, that, by proper exertion, the minds of the people may be guided into the path of public good, and prevented from wandering into that road of error into which it has been the unceaſing object of the infamous leaders of that rival faction to direct them. Conſcious that the only method to effect their ruinous deſigns is to envelope the minds of the people in that maze of error and darkneſs which will prevent the operation of their better judgment. Yes, my fellow-citizen, Jefferſon, Monroe, Taylor and other equally deſigning men of this ſtate, have led the virtuous people of Virginia ſo near the edge of the precipice as to call for the moſt manly exertions of your real friends to ſnatch you from the dreadful fall. Mr. E. Brooke, who is now ſoliciting your patronage in the enſuing election, is a known friend to his country and government; a man of exenſive information, beloved as a neighbour, and guided in his conduct by the ſtrongeſt moral principles. Mr. Mafon, on the other hand, has been nurtured from his infancy in a deep-rooted and inveterate hatred for that government under which he lives in ſo much ſecurity and eaſe, and the benign influence of which has and ſtill continues to be felt through every rank of ſociety. This, my fellow-citizens, is a fair and diſintereſted delineation of the two characters; one of whom you are about to ſelect as a proper perſon to fill the truly dignified and important office of Senator. That you may be guided in your deciſion by that love of country and patriotic virtue, which I anxiouſly hope will be the immutable baſis of our government, is the ſincere wiſh of

THE CELEBRATED RUNNING HORSE
MUFTI,
Imported last August by John Tayloe, Esq. of Mount Airy,

Is certainly from the best stock in England, as will appear from Mr. Tayloe's certificate below. He is a fine bay, full fifteen hands and one inch high, of great strength and activity, finely formed, and uncommonly handsome. From great performances as a racer, &c. and after the first of his get appeared on the turf, he covered at Woburn, in England, at Ten Guineas a mare, and Half a Guinea to the Groom; of which I am possessed of documents that will not be doubted.

Mufti will stand at this place to cover Mares from the date hereof until the tenth of August next, at Twelve Dollars the Leap, or Twenty Five Dollars the Season, with a Dollar to the Groom, in every instance, which must be paid in hand. No mare is to be considered as going by the leap, unless the money is paid on the day of covering. A legal note for twenty-five dollars must be sent with each mare that is put by the season, payable the 20th of August next; except those that remain at pasture, and for them payment will be expected before they are removed. If twenty dollars are paid by the last of July, it will be received in full for the season of a mare, grooms fee excepted.

I shall have a large quantity of excellent pasture, both high and low ground, well enclosed, at Forty Cents per week, for mares brought ten miles or upwards; and every attention will be paid to mares left in my care, but no responsibility for losses or casualties of any kind. The mares may be fed on application, the grain provided at the market price, and gentlemen's servants attending their mares boarded on moderate terms.

SAMUEL LOVE.

Salisbury, March 18, 1800.

Pedigree and performances of the beautiful Horse Mufti, lately purchased from the Stud of his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

He was bred by Mr. Mann, of Norwich, and was got by Fitzherod, one of the best sons of King Herod; his dam by Infant, son of the Godolphin Arabian; grand dam by Whittington, out of the full sister to Black-and-all-Black.

In 1780, when three years old, and the property of his royal highness the Prince of Wales (who purchased him of Major Churchill) Mufti won a match of 100 Guineas each, at New-Market, beating Mr. Wyndham's Prodigal, Rowley's mile. The following meeting he ran a dead heat with Sir C. Bunbury's Young Tityrus, 8st. each, Abington mile, for 200 Guineas each. Young Tityrus won the plate of three years, two days afterwards, when eleven started.

In 1787, when the property of Richard Vernon, Esq. he received 100 guineas compromise from Lord Derby's Wren, 8st. each, Ditch in, 200 guineas—At 8st. 7lb. he beat the Duke of Queensberry's Young Giant, 7st. 13lb. two miles, for 400 guineas—and received 87 guineas compromise from Mr. Fox's Braganza.

In 1788 Mufti won the Craven Stakes at New-Market, when twelve started, beating Scots, Nimble, &c.—won a Sweepstake of 300 guineas each, across the Flat, beating Fidget, and receiving forfeit from Pharamond. He also received forfeit from Mr. Fox's Braganza, giving 3lb. D. I. for 200 guineas, h. ft. and was afterwards purchased by his Grace the Duke of Bedford.

In 1789 Mufti did not appear in public, being his Grace's Trial Horse.

In 1790 Mufti won all his engagements, viz. a match against Lord Bangmore's Highlander, for 100 guineas; a handsome sweepstake of 50 guineas each (7 subscribers) D. I. beating Magpie, Seagull, &c.—and a match, beating Don Quixotte, across the Flat, for 200 each; all at New-Market.

In 1791 he won the Craven Stakes at New-Market, when 15 started; amongst which were Crupper, Don Quixotte, Herpator, &c.—At 9st. 1½lb. he beat the Prince of Wales's Glaucus, 7st. 4lb. across the Flat, for 200 guineas each—At 8st. 7lb. each, he beat the Prince of Wales's Pegasus, a match for 1000 guineas each across the Flat.

In 1792 Mufti came in second for the Craven Stakes, beating Asparagus, Coriander and 7 others—and at 8st. 7lb. beat his royal highness the Duke of York's Serpent—8st. a match over the Beacon Course, for 100 guineas each. This was the last year of his running, after which he became a stallion, at Woburn; and in 1796, the first of his get that started won a sweepstake of 100 guineas each, at New-Market, when six started, and one paid forfeit.—The same Colt won several times in the following year.

Mufti is 15 hands and one inch high, and both in and out of training, was esteemed one of the most beautiful horses in England.

I do certify the above to be a true copy of the Pedigree and Performances of Mufti, as sent me by Mr. Weatherby (author of the Racing Calender, and Match Book-Keeper, at New-Market) who purchased the Horse.

Just received by the Tryall, Capt. Hand, from Philadelphia, and for Sale,

NEWBOLD's PATENT PLOUGHS. From their peculiar construction it is acknowledged by those who have made the experiment, that they run much easier than those they hitherto used—and in New Jersey and Pennsylvania their superiority has given them a decided preference. Should they be approved of here, which they no doubt will, a constant supply will be kept on hand. Apply to Lands for Sale, or exchange for other Property.

SEVEN hundred and eighty-eight acres in the county of Hampshire, on the waters of Great Cape Capon, about 20 miles from the Warm Springs, and 30 from Winchester.—This land is full of wood, oak and Pine Timber. Two excellent farms may be made, with 30 to 50 acres of bottom, and rich high lands to each; and in the heart of the timber there is a fine seat for a saw-mill. Capt. Daniel Rice will shew the lands.

Three thousand eight hundred and forty-five acres in the county of Ohio, on the waters of Grave and Fish creeks, near the river Ohio, and about 80 miles below Pittsburg. Some of these lands are very good, with considerable quantities of rich bottom, and plenty of excellent timber. Robert Woods, Esq. the Surveyor of that county, will shew these lands.

One hundred seventy six and three-fourth acres, within three miles of the Warm Springs, upon Great Cape-Capon, near its mouth, and within ¼ of a mile of the River Potomak. This land has about 70 to 80 acres of rich bottom, mostly in cultivation, with 274 fine sugar trees on it; from which, I am informed, there may be made 9000lb. of good sugar annually. There is also a seat for grist and saw mills on it, equal to any in that neighbourhood, and upon a never failing stream of water. The upland is rich, with plenty of timber, and part under cultivation. This farm is well improved with a good orchard, houses and fencing, and rented last year for produce equal to sixty pounds per an. Mr. Joseph Butler, at the Warm Springs, will shew it. I will sell all, or any of the above lands for cash, or upon credit, or take in exchange for them lands in Fairfax County, or Lots of land in the town of Alexandria, or the city of Washington.

Commission, Ship Broker
AND Conveyancer's Office,

In the Brick House, near the Bank, opposite Printing-Office of Mr. Price.

FROM a view of the new Navigation and Revenue Laws of the United States, I have been encouraged to open the above Office, from a belief that the said laws require more attention than persons in general concerned in trade and navigation will find convenient to pay them, in order to avoid incurring the penalties inflicted for not complying with the requisitions thereof. Where every form and instrument of writing appertaining to shipping, entry, clearance, imports, exports, excise, drawbacks and debentures, required by the laws of the United States and the officers of the government may be had. I have also taken such steps as will, in a short time, insure the accurate information respecting the restrictions on our trade in foreign countries, and particularly at such foreign port or place where an American consul or agent may reside, with the formalities necessary to be observed, and the fees, duties, &c. payable thereat.
